

Helpful tips to accessing finding the live-streamed Mass

1. After our live-stream recording has ended, the Mass can be found by visiting our YouTube channel, Sacred Heart Eureka, MO.
2. Click on the “Videos” tab.
3. Navigate to the drop down menu and select “Past live streams.”
4. The video should appear in date order, most recent on top.

The screenshot displays the YouTube channel page for "Sacred Heart Eureka, MO", which has 268 subscribers. The navigation tabs are HOME, VIDEOS (circled in yellow), PLAYLISTS, CHANNELS, and ABOUT. A dropdown menu is open under the VIDEOS tab, with "Past live streams" highlighted in grey and circled in yellow. Below the menu, three video thumbnails are visible, each titled "Daily Mass (12-17-21) @MSH Church", "Daily Mass (12-16-21) @MSH Church", and "Daily Mass (12-15-21) @MSH Church". The thumbnails show a crucifix and a stained glass window. The video durations are 35:33, 25:30, and 25:01 respectively. Below each thumbnail, the view count and stream time are provided: "5 views • Streamed 7 hours ago", "8 views • Streamed 1 day ago", and "7 views • Streamed 2 days ago".
